

The Vanishing Point Collection By Pilot

The Vanishing Point retractable fountain pen is a product rich in both history and performance. Its brilliant design and ingenious technology make it a pen for the new age. A larger size, durable metal body and attractive appointments make the Vanishing Point unmistakably unique. Available in black, blue, red and green barrel colors with gold or rhodium accents, black or blue carbonesque finishes with rhodium accents, and raden, chrome, slate and gun metal gray finishes with rhodium accents. All are available with an 18 karat gold fine, medium or broad nib. Each Vanishing Point fountain pen is beautifully merchandised in a navy gift box.
